

CLASS TITLE: Firefighter (Assigned as Training Instructor)

CHARACTERISTICS OF THE CLASS: Under supervision, conducts training programs in psychomotor skills relevant to the duties of Fire Service personnel; and performs related duties as required.

EXAMPLES OF DUTIES: Develops and implements training programs to advance psychomotor skills of Fire Service personnel; provides classroom instruction of methods and techniques involved in skill acquirement; documents trainees' progress; administers periodic progress tests; ensures proper maintenance and safety of all equipment used in training programs.

DESIRABLE MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

Training and Experience. One year of experience as a Firefighter, supplemented by fire service training and in situation experience; or an equivalent combination of training and experience.

Knowledge, Abilities and Skill. Knowledge of fire service training.

Ability to develop and effectively present class lesson plans on various Fire service related material.

Skill in effectively communicating information.